DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 11/06/2009 has been entered.

Specification

2. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: The specification lacks antecedent basis for the terminology "wider width portion" and "narrower width portion".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1, 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Japanese Document No. 2003-146337 to Watanabe (hereafter, Watanabe), Japanese Document No. 11-208676 to Tomiyoshi et al. (hereafter, Tomiyoshi et al.) and Japanese Document No. 2001-48193 to Gomi (hereafter, Gomi).

Watanabe discloses the claimed device, especially each of the side sealing portions including an inclined portion for connection to an adjacent cross sealing portion, wherein the inclined portion has a larger sealing width than other portion of the side sealing portion. However, Watanabe does not disclose for the side sealing portions having a plurality of projecting portions and the first and second elongated flexible sheets having first and second wider width portions and a narrower width portion therebetween. Tomiyoshi et al. teaches that it is known in the art to provide the side sealing portions of an analogous pouch with a plurality of projecting portions. Tomiyoshi et al. further teaches that it is known in the art to provide the first and second elongated flexible sheets of an analogous pouch with first and second wider width portions and a narrower width portion therebetween. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide for the side sealing portions having a plurality of projecting portions and the first and second elongated flexible sheets having first and second wider width portions and a narrower width portion therebetween, as suggested by Tomiyoshi et al., since a change in form or shape is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art, absent any showing of unexpected results.

Watanabe and Tomiyoshi et al. disclose the claimed device, as discussed above, except for the side sealing portions being provided as a plurality of side sealing portions extending lengthwise of first and second elongated flexible sheets with a plurality of cross sealing portions spaced from each other lengthwise of the sheets. Gomi discloses that it is known in the art to provide a plurality of side sealing portions extending lengthwise of first and second elongated flexible sheets with a plurality of cross sealing portions spaced from each other lengthwise of the sheets to form an analogous pouch. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the side sealing portions of the modified Watanabe pouch as a plurality of side sealing portions extending lengthwise of first and second elongated flexible sheets with a plurality of cross sealing portions spaced from each other lengthwise of the sheets, as suggested by Gomi, in order to successively manufacture a plurality of pouches.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 2 and 4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

7. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.111, including: "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. A general allegation that the claims "define a patentable invention" without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. Moreover, "The prompt development of a clear Issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims." Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 714.02 and MPEP 2163.06. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.
